

Mister President, the whole world awaits your history-making decision, the decision your predecessors did not dare or did not wish to make; the decision to have a reckoning with communism. It would have been better to have made the same decision in Vietnam in 1959, in Cuba in 1958, in Tibet in 1957, in Hungary in 1956, in Berlin in 1953, in Korea in 1950, in Moscow in 1945 or in Washington in 1933. But for a quarter of a century the United States has had no statesmen, only soldiers, who did their duty at all times and in the face of all enemies.

Mister President, your name will rank with the greatest in history if you save America and the world from the horror of communism. Do not let your hands be tied! Do not let your will be paralyzed! Do not permit yourself to be dazed by the strength of the enemy!

Act! Sacrifice your best friends and your worst advisors, if necessary. America and the free world must win!

Freedom cannot be destroyed with threats and hydrogen-bombs! History has given your assignment. If you fail, America and the entire free world fail with you!

Mister President, the road to victory over communism is easy to find: About face and forward! An about face away from the previous policy of retreat and defeat! Forward to the final victory, to the total annihilation of communism, until humanity is saved!

May God give you the strength to bring this decision, to fight, and may He lead you and your fight to victory!

SUBVERSIVE AGITATORS

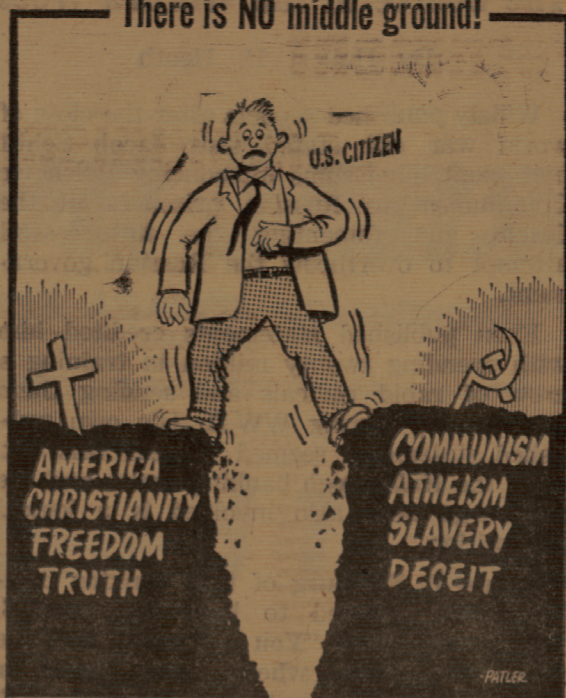

A New York evening newspaper dated March 16, 1934, contains an account of disbarment proceedings in the courts of New York and New Jersey against no less than twelve lawyers charged with perjury, subornation, jury fixing, instigation of false litigation and other dishonorable practices. The names of these defendants are given as Serlinsky, Altex, Simon, Karpis, Busch, Frankel, Mayer, Kurtz, Kahan, Kirsch, Aronstein and Goldstein. Such is the substrata of existing American citizenship, an underworld of criminals and professional law breakers. Two of the three leaders of the French Revolution were lawyers and the affinity of Jews for that prostituted vocation is easily understood.

Another concrete and definite proof of Jewish disloyalty is found in a report printed in the New York newspapers of June 3rd, 1934, reading in part as follows:

"Fifteen thousand men, women and children in festal mood assembled last night at Madison Square Garden under the auspices of a hundred Jewish organizations to celebrate Soviet Russia's recent grant of local self-government to their colony in the Far Eastern District of Siberia."

Saul Almazov, national Secretary of the "Icor" organization for Jewish colonization in Soviet Russia, presided over the meeting. Speakers other than the chairman were Earl Browder (who married Esther Abramovitch), general Secretary of the Communist Party in America; Reuben Salzman, national Secretary of the Jewish section of the International Workers Order; Moishe Katz, associate editor of the Morning Freiheit; Hyman Gastrell, national Secretary of the Jewish Workers Clubs; William Weiner, of the Communist Party Jewish Bureau; Charles Recht, Attorney; Herbert Goldfrank, national Secretary of the friends of the Soviet Union; Abraham Epstein, Secretary of the Jewish Workers and People's Committee against Anti-Semitism, and Louis Hyman, President of the Needle Trade Industrial Union. Earl Browder, Secretary of the Communist Party in America, declared that their new colony in Siberia was "only one of the fruits of the successful proletarian revolution under the Bolsheviks: "that the Soviet

There is NO middle ground!

Union is the only part of the world that is going ahead, the rest sinking into economic chaos", "that the Communist Party alone was fighting Fascism and that the forces that had created Soviet Russia would create a similar government in Germany and the United States." The audience of 15,000 greeted these statements with "vociferous and thunderous applause". "Most of these speeches were made in Yiddish." Men of this type are unworthy of civil liberty, and in every country they are guilty of two major crimes. In ancient Roman law these crimes were known as "produllio", conspiracy at home, and "proditio," trafficking with enemies abroad, for the overthrow of every government under which they exist. In Russia, the Jewish ideal of proletarian Justice, any act harmful to Soviet Independence or territorial possession is defined as treason and the punishment is "death before the firing squad", because protection of the homeland is the "highest law of life and whosoever betrays the nation must be destroyed". Compare this savage ferocity of this with the leniency and license permitted elsewhere. It is evident, however, that Jews regard disloyalty a virtue and ingratitude as an obligation of sacred observance.

Will the American people accept the challenge of these malicious foreigners, who proclaim themselves as the uncompromising enemies of the United States government?

ARE YOU A COMMUNIST? THINK

The Communist Party has spent 20 years using much of the news media of this nation to brainwash the citizens.

The Communist Party has won every inning so far and we are at least in the seventh inning.

Are you helping in the World Conspiracy to destroy the American way of life, our freedom?

If you believe in race-mixing you are helping communism.

If you believe that our State Department is trying to destroy communism then you have been brainwashed.

If you believe that our Federal Government is free of communist influence then you have been brainwashed.

If you believe that you are in no immediate danger then you have been brainwashed.

Communism is on the march in your country. Examine your attitude and see if you are helping to further communism.

A full-fledged communist state is only 90 miles from America and now British Guiana has gone the way of Cuba.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING ABOUT IT?

We challenge— THE STATE DEPARTMENT

(Below is a letter from The State Dept. to Senator Vance Hartke).

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
Washington

June 14, 1962

Dear Senator Hartke:

I want to thank you for your communication of June 11 enclosing an issue of a newspaper sent you by Dr. Robert J. Miller.

The publication is one of such an irresponsible nature that the Department of State feels it cannot properly comment on the substance of the articles therein. In the hope that it will be of interest to your constituent, some material is enclosed which concerns security measures within the Department of State.

I am returning your constituent's newspaper for your files. If I may be of any further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to call on me.

Sincerely yours,

Frederick G. Dutton
Assistant Secretary

Mr. Frederick G. Dutton
Assistant Secretary
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dutton:

A letter which you wrote on June 14, 1962 has been brought to my attention. In this letter you say; "The publication is one of such an irresponsible nature that the Department of State feels that it cannot comment on the substance of the articles therein."

How can you substantiate such a ridiculous statement?

We have been publishing COMMON SENSE for 16½ years and I challenge you to show me one issue that reflects irresponsibility.

The enemy we attacked, including the State Department, has not dared to challenge us on one article! Millions of people believe the State Department is irresponsible! We do not say there are no good employees in the State Department, but certainly you do have men in the Department who constantly cooperate with communists in many countries.

The State Department is hell-bent to destroy dictatorship all over the world but evidently they do not consider Castro or Khrushchev dictators, for the State Department fears to give encouragement to any of the countries such as Hungary who are held under the slavery of communism.

I challenge you or Dean Rusk to defend the State Department in a debate with me, either in person or on paper.

Sincerely yours,

Conde McGinley

WHILE THEY LAST

25 different issues of COMMON SENSE for only $1.00. These naturally go back several years, but they are just as timely today as then, some more so. Ask for 25 DIFFERENT. C. E. A.
